

General Assembly of Doctoral Candidates 2019

Thursday, 25 April 2019; 5 p.m.
Leibnizstraße 1, Klaus-Murmann-Hörsaal

Participants of Doctoral Candidates' Representation 2018/2019:

Jinru He, Jannes Klee, Tommy Breslein, Bráulio Borges Barreiros, Iulia Blaj, Johanna Ira Blase, Igor Kindop,

Participants of Graduate Center: Dr. Sabine Milde, Stefanie Ohlmeyer,

Participating registered doctoral candidates: 21

Approval of the Agenda

The Doctoral Candidates' Representation 2018/19 presented the proposed agenda, which has been approved by the Executive Committee and the Advisory Board and sent to all the doctoral candidates in the due time, and reminded all the participants about their rights to make changes to the agenda. The majority of the participants agreed with the present agenda.

Welcome by the Doctoral Candidates' Representation

The Doctoral Candidates' Representation 2018/19 briefly introduced themselves and the structure of the doctoral candidates' representation of the Graduate Center, expressed appreciations to the participants, and encouraged all the present doctoral candidates to respond to the topics to be discussed and join the 2019/20 representation.

Welcome by the Graduate Center

Dr. Sabine Milde, head of the Graduate Center, expressed welcome to all the participants, introduced the structure of the Graduate Center, and highlighted that the doctoral candidates have a strong voice at Kiel University.

Promoting the Supervision Agreement

Tommy Breslein, representative at the Advisory Board, introduced the background and current state of the Supervision Agreement project, explained the long term goal and difficulties at the moment, and highlighted the importance of deploying the supervision agreement at the university level.

Promoting Equality and Diversity

Johanna Ira Blasé, substitute to the Advisory Board, introduced the representative for diversity at Kiel University and the offer of helpdesk for gender and diversity issues, and invited all the doctoral candidates to the coming Diversity Day.

Improvement of the Federal State Funding for doctoral candidates in Schleswig-Holstein

Jannes Klee, representative at the Advisory Board, introduced the goal of the project, explained the necessity of raising the federal state funding with detailed numbers, and discussed plans of the future conversation with state authorities.

Discussing the Role and Tasks for the Doctoral Candidates' Representation

Jinru He, substitute to the Executive Committee, summarized the role and mission of the doctoral candidates' representation in the past, introduced the recent statement on the time desk issue, and proposed the OpenSpace initiative to connect all the university members to burst interaction and creativity.

General Assembly of Doctoral Candidates 2019

Thursday, 25 April 2019; 5 p.m.
Leibnizstraße 1, Klaus-Murmann-Hörsaal

Election of the Doctoral Candidates' Representation 2019/2020

Number of eligible voters: 21

1) Nominations for Graduate Center's Executive Committee:

Johanna Ira Blase: 10

Jinru He: 11

Elected for Graduate Center's Executive Committee:

as representative: Jinru He

as substitute: Johanna Ira Blase

2) Nominations for Graduate Center's Advisory Board:

Askar Mukashov: 5

Igor Kindop: 6

Leonard Siebert: 5

Georgios Marinos: 6

Danielle Harris: 19

Sascha Boelcke: 14

Bráulio Borges Barreiros: 12

Tommy Breslein: 17

Elected for Graduate Center's Advisory Board:

as representative: Danielle Harris

as substitute: Georgios Marinos

as representative: Tommy Breslein

as substitute: Igor Kindop

as representative: Sascha Boelcke

as substitute: Askar Muskashov

as representative: Bráulio Borges Barreiros

as substitute: Leonard Siebert